

KEEP Youth Council Meeting Minutes
Taylor County Fairgrounds
June 6, 2009

The KEEP Youth Council held a meeting at the Taylor County Fairgrounds on June 6, 2009. The meeting was called to order by President Kaelyn Donnelly at 1:15 PM. Minutes were read and a motion to approve was made by Samantha Clark, seconded by Tiffany Browning. Kaelyn announced the 2009 officers and then turned over her position to Alex Browning, the new president.

Next, the group discussed remaining things to be done for the Pony Patches, including web resources, prices of patches, etc. Kaelyn and Jessi will look more into ordering the patches. It was decided to wait to decide price of the program.

Hats Off Day at the Horse Park was discussed, with Jessi mentioning that it will take place on August 15th and anyone is welcome to come help out. The council also discussed having a trail ride at Green River. Jessi will look into renting horses and such. There was also discussion about visiting the KY Horseshoeing School on a weekday. Jessi will look into setting this up.

A motion was made by Kaelyn and seconded by Kaitlyn Benningfield to hold the next meeting on August 1st at either Metzgers or the Shelby County Extension Office, then visiting the Shelbyville Horse Show. Motion passed. Kaelyn made a motion to adjourn the meeting. Kaitlyn Benningfield seconded, and motion passed. The meeting convened at 1:45 PM.

The council members then left to help with the Taylor County Youth Horse Show.
